

UTU Alumni Association membership application

The UTU Alumni Association is a voluntary, money-saving program for transportation retirees from all crafts. Association members enjoy the following benefits:

- The *UTU News, the official publication of the UTU, covering items of interest to retired and active workers from the transportation industry, including developments affecting Railroad Retirement and disability pensions;
- Automatic listing in “The Final Call,” the notice of recent deaths carried in the UTU News;
- Representation in Washington, D.C., and your state capitol. UTU officials are always keeping watch on legislation that affects Railroad Retirement, Social Security, Medicare and other programs of interest to senior citizens.
- An embroidered “UTU Alumni” baseball-style cap;
- An annual full-size UTU wall calendar, featuring beautiful transportation photos;
- Membership in the nearest UTU Alumni Association chapter;
- Discounts on car rentals from National Car Rental in the U.S. and Canada;
- Discounts at popular lodging chains, such as Days Inns, Red Roof Inns and Super 8;
- Discounts on cellular telephones and services from AT&T;
- An important documents portfolio ideal for keeping insurance policies, stock certificates, etc.;
- A 41-page UTU/UTUIA Assets Manager to help keep track of financial information;
- A 36-page UTU/UTUIA Medical Manager for recording important medical information;
- Automatic enrollment in the UTU Travelers’ Club, which sponsors world-wide excursions at affordable, group rates;
